

WISCONSIN MANUFACTURING
EXTENSION PARTNERSHIP

Leading for High Performance

This working session is designed to immerse executives into the strategic side of their business.

Executives will be guided to reflect and assess their business against nine essential elements for building a high performing culture and prioritize action steps for closing the gaps.

All participants will receive an electronic toolkit so action can be immediate.

This session will empower CEO's/President's/COO's:

- With critical insights for leading, inspiring, and developing leaders and teams.
- To align all business functions so the company operates as "one team" and execution is fast.
- With a system for operationalizing strategies into clear expectations so every team member, at every level, is empowered to take initiative and is recognized for their contribution.
- With the knowledge and tools to build an accountable, inspiring, values-driven culture that attracts top talent where employees invite their friends to join the company.
- With a customizable toolkit for immediate implementation.

Lunch will be included
