

Barry Messer

Consultant

920.267.0942

messer@wmep.org

Barry brings over 25 years manufacturing experience working with management driving continual improvement and implementing quality management systems, in machining, foundry, assembly environments. He has lead new and ongoing cross-functional initiatives related to customer, quality, regulatory, and continuous improvement.

Barry is a long term systems thinker with a proven track record of systems development and sustained improvement on key business issues including customer satisfaction, supplier performance, process performance, delivery, and scrap.

SKILL SET

- Lean Transformational Implementation
- Lean Leadership Training
- Lean Manufacturing Implementation
- Six Sigma Black Belt
- Root Cause Analysis – Corrective Action
- Operational Process Improvement
- Safety, Quality, Cost, Delivery
- Quality Systems Lead – ISO 9001, AS9100
- Continuous Improvement, Lean Kaizen events
- Workflow Analysis/Standardization
- Measurement Systems Analysis
- Bottom Line Return on Investment
- Process Change Management
- Overall Equipment Effectiveness (OEE)

CERTIFICATIONS

- American Society for Quality (ASQ), Certified Manager of Quality and Operational Excellence
- American Society for Quality (ASQ), Certified Quality Auditor
- Certified Lead Auditor ISO 9001, AS9100

EDUCATION

- University of Wisconsin Stevens Point, B.S. Business (Marketing)
- Moraine Park Technical College, Associates Degree – Industrial Engineering,
- Milwaukee School of Engineering (SigMax), 6-Sigma Black Belt (DMAIC & D1DOVM)
- Milwaukee School of Engineering (WCM Associates), Lean Leader