

Pivot2Revenue (P2R) Assessment

Have you identified ways to generate more revenue for your company in the new normal?
What are you doing to pivot your business right now and over the long-term?
Is your team all on the same page or are they busy working in the business not on the business?

Of the Wisconsin Manufacturers participating in the Pulse Survey* in September 2002, 67% indicated their business was down compared to last year.

Pivoting is about turning toward business opportunities that your company can be uniquely positioned to address and generate revenue in the new normal.

WMEP's Pivot2Revenue (P2R) Assessment helps your company identify the factors that drive revenue.

Through this guided assessment WMEP assists your company identify sales and revenue opportunities. Our facilitated discussion with your organization's leaders evaluates your company's growth performance and risk relative to the four dimensions of revenue expansion. These evaluations are validated with your team, and upon completion of the assessment you will receive a 2-page summary report of the session findings complete with actionable recommendations.
